RETREAT SPEAKERS

James Lapp

&

Miriam Book

Mim Book grew up near Lancaster, PA. She studied at London Bible College in England, Eastern University and at AMBS. In addition to roles at Eastern Mennonite Missions and Philhaven Hospital, she has served as a denominational executive for the former Mennonite Church and lead pastor at Salford Mennonite Church.

Jim Lapp grew up near Lansdale, PA, and has degrees from EMU, AMBS and Drew Theological Seminary. He has pastored churches for 20 years as well as served as campus minister at Goshen College. In addition, Jim served 20 years as General Secretary for the former Mennonite Church and as Conference Pastor for Franconia Conference.

Jim and Mim have been married for 17 years and both have served as Intentional Interim Pastors from Nebraska to Pennsylvania. They are parents of three adult children and grandparents to seven, scattered around the country. Together, Jim and Mim find joy in walking, reading, traveling, and friendships.

WORSHIP LEADER

Tim Shue

Tim Shue is director of music at Central Christian School in Kidron. Tim enjoys the process of making music, both instrumentally and vocally. He has directed music at many national events within the Mennonite Church, including four national conventions, several MEA teacher conventions, and workshops in churches and camps. This will be his fourth pastor-spouse retreat. He also is director of the men's ensemble, Sonnenberg Station, and the acoustic band, Hometown. Tim is married to Jennifer and they have three daughters, Harper, Sommer and Veena.
