OHIO CONFERENCE INVITES YOU TO

Gathered and Sent a missional conference featuring

Meghan Good and
Marvin Lorenzana

March 8-9, 2018

Bluffton University
Bluffton, Ohio

PRESENTERS

MEGHAN GOOD

Meghan L. Good is Teaching Pastor at Trinity Mennonite Church in Glendale, Arizona. She received her B.A. from Gordon College, her M.Div. from Duke Divinity School and is currently a doctoral student in "Preaching as Story" at George Fox Evangelical Seminary. In addition to being a passionate preacher and storyteller, she is a frequent speaker around such topics as biblical hermeneutics, emerging Anabaptism, and the church's generation gap. Meghan resides in Phoenix, Arizona, with a ridiculously large book collection and a prized dinosaur bone. She's a big fan of Blue Devil basketball, travel, jokes about T-Rex arms, and mildly embarrassing experiences that can be wildly exaggerated later on for dramatic effect.

MARVIN LORENZANA

A native of Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Marvin Lorenzana came to the United States in 1994. While in the United States, he has served as a youth pastor, associate pastor, senior pastor and church planter in assignments in New Orleans, Louisiana; El Paso, Texas; Miami, Florida; and Harrisonburg, Virginia. A licensed minister with Mennonite Church USA, he lives in Harrisonburg. Currently he works for Mennonite Mission Network as director for discipleship initiatives. As part of this assignment, he is working with several Ohio Conference congregations involved in the Missional Discipleship Initiative (MDI). He also works for Virginia Mennonite Missions as a director for the Mennonite Hispanic Initiative.
