Responding to Violence

Calling all young adults (ages 18-22) from Anabaptist congregations interested in learning about a Biblical approach to peace and justice that can be applied in their everyday lives.

Join us for a week-long Peace Camp as we explore the theme of “Responding to Violence.” Hands-on learning topics will focus on conflict transformation skills, mass incarceration, bystander training, gun violence and restorative justice, including a trip to Chicago with MCC partners working with gun violence prevention.

The base participant fee is $300. Additional contributions will support participants who are unable to pay the full fee. Scholarships are also available on a case-by-case basis. Find out more and register online!
