JILL STOLTZFUS is the executive director of the Association for a More Just Society (AJS), an organization dedicated to doing justice in Honduras and to inspiring others around the world to seek justice in their own contexts. Jill has worked with AJS for 10 years. She serves as a steering committee member for the Faith and Public Integrity Network. Jill graduated from Calvin University with a BA in International Development and received an MA in Organizational Leadership from Eastern University.

ALI NOORANI is the executive director of the National Immigration Forum, a non-partisan advocacy organization working with faith, law enforcement, and business leaders to promote the value of immigrants and immigration. Growing up in California as the son of Pakistani immigrants, Ali learned how to forge alliances among people of diverse backgrounds, a skill that has served him well as one of the nation's most innovative coalition builders.
