

THEME

*Empowered by the Holy Spirit to lead
like yourself*

Trusting in the power of the Pentecost story, we will explore how to bring the fullness of who we are becoming as women empowered by the Holy Spirit to lead in our families, congregations, and communities.

St. Francis Spirituality
Center
Tiffin, Ohio

SPEAKER

Rebecca Slough

Rebecca is Academic Dean and Professor of Worship and the Arts Emerita at Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary. She has led numerous workshops and conferences on worship and congregational song. Recently, she helped to develop the online worship resource website Together in Worship. Rebecca is married to Joe M.S. Miller and is a member of College Mennonite Church (Goshen, IN). She is passionate about supporting women to become confident, trustworthy, but not perfect, leaders. She believes that competent, honest, discerning, and wise leadership is essential if communities are to flourish and experience abundant life together.
