November is Mission Month

Mennonite Mission Network (MMN) invites your congregation to explore what it means to experience the hospitality of God in the context of mission.

MMN has created an online collection of scriptures, songs, stories, videos, and recipes to inspire a Sunday Missions service using the theme "Together at God's Table: Giving and Receiving Hospitality in God's Mission."

To view these resources, go to <https://bit.ly/2021MissionsSundayResources>.

Another option for learning more about missions is to invite a representative of Mennonite Mission Network to visit your congregation, either in person or virtually. Mennonite Mission Network staff would love to join your congregation in worship to preach, teach, and share stories of God at work around the world. Whether you need a sermon or a Sunday school leader, Mission Network can help. Visit the MMN website at <https://bit.ly/MMNGuestSpeakers> to learn more.

Generations can grow in faith together

There are many settings in which children, youth and adults can grow in faith together rather than as separate groups.

Mennonite Church USA (MC USA) has added an Intergenerational Faith Formation resource page to the MC USA website. To view, go to <https://bit.ly/IntergenerationalFaithFormation>.

At that web address you will find a collection of the resources which were shared in a Faith Formation Roundtable discussion on Oct. 14. This collection of resources includes a video recording of the Roundtable discussion, a list of organizations that

Baptism workshop to feature ecumenical conversation

Ohio Conference and Central District Conference are hosting a free workshop featuring ecumenical conversation about baptism on Saturday, Nov. 6, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at Columbus Mennonite Church.

“Believe and Be Baptized: Conversations on a 500-year Tradition” will be led by John D. Roth, a history professor at Goshen College. This workshop is open to all in the Ohio Conference.

Recently, representatives of the Mennonite World Conference, the Lutheran World Federation, and the Roman Catholic Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity explored many questions related to baptism in a groundbreaking five-year ecumenical conversation. This workshop will introduce participants to this Trilateral Dialogue and invite Mennonite participants to come to a deeper understanding of baptism through conversations with each other and with local Lutheran and Catholic clergy.

Lunch will be served. There is no charge for this workshop, but registration is required. Register online at <https://bit.ly/Believe-BeBaptized>.

February 18-19, 2022

This retreat is for any woman already in leadership, who feels a call to leadership, or who would like to explore leadership further. Ohio Conference encourages you to tap women of any age from your congregation to participate in this retreat.
