

Everence adds three to Northeast Ohio staff

KIDRON, Ohio – Everence Financial® announces the additions of Roger Dishong, Justin Wagler and Glenn Black to our staff in Northeast Ohio.

Dishong is a financial consultant in the Everence office in Hartville. He graduated from the University of Akron and earned a Master of Business Administration degree from Malone University.

Wagler is a financial consultant in the Everence office in Kidron. The Walnut Creek native earned a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Point Loma Nazarene University in San Diego.

Everence financial consultants help people integrate their financial decisions with their faith and values.

Black is a stewardship consultant who works from the Hartville and Kidron offices. He graduated from Ashland University and earned a master's degree in counseling from Ashland Theological Seminary.

He helps churches and church members integrate their faith and finances through congregational services, pastor and church leader resources, and stewardship education.

"We are very excited about these staff additions. We look forward to continued growth in Northeast Ohio," said Managing Director Bruce Breckbill.

About Everence

Everence helps individuals, organizations and congregations integrate finances with faith through a national team of professionals. Everence offers banking, insurance and financial services with community benefits and stewardship education. To learn more, visit everence.com or call 800-348-7468.